Easter 2021

Dear Church of the Nativity
Community:

I hope you are well and are excited that we are in 2021! I imagine we all are glad to say goodbye to 2020! What a year it has been. Despite the pain and sorrow of 2020, we are finally at a place in 2021 where we can see the light at the end of the tunnel. Now it is time to celebrate together and welcome each other back to church, whenever you feel comfortable to return. I hope that you have received your vaccination by now or at least have one scheduled.

We are opening our church building for worship on the Second Sunday of Easter, April 11, 2021. In preparation for reopening, we are having the entire church building thoroughly cleaned so that you may have the confidence that we continue to put health and safety first and foremost. The service on April 11 will be our first church service inside the building since December.

As you might recall, we returned to church holding indoor and outdoor services on September 13, 2020. Then in mid-December with the rise of Covid cases after Thanksgiving, we moved outdoors where it was safer to gather for church services.

Ever since we regathered as a church community in September 2020, we have never canceled any in-person worship services. Unlike several other Episcopal churches in Phoenix, we also have never had an outbreak of Covid at church. Thank you for wearing your mask, for washing your hands, and for practicing social distancing.

Additionally, since March 2020 we have been able to provide church services online as the church staff quickly learned how to create a meaningful online worship service. I want to thank the church staff, Associate Rector Fr. Wayne Whitney; Deacon Martha Durham; former Music Director Juliana Witt; Interim Music Director Charles Cornner; Youth, Children and Family Minister Mandy Hodges; Parish Administrator Mina Rafferty; and our Video Editor Diego Miranda for their countless hours and work above and beyond the norm during the last year.

I also would like to thank our Church Officers Senior Warden Paul Rank, Junior Warden Ron Kupinski, Treasurer Art Graf, and Vestry Clerk Cheryle Dunkelberg, along with the entire vestry who helped us navigate an unexpected new world during the pandemic. In addition, I want to thank our Regathering Committee who met weekly during much of the Fall of 2020 as we digested the guidelines from the Diocese of Arizona in preparation to resume worship in a safe manner.

Finally, I would like to THANK YOU! Thank you for being at Nativity; for standing by us during a time of extreme uncertainty and stress during a global pandemic; for keeping us in your prayers; for your financial contributions; and for remaining connected to your church community.

May you have a prayerful and blessed Holy Week as well as a joyful and happy Easter full of Christ's love,

The Reverend Scot McComas

Wayne's World April 2021

Easter Sunday is the first day of a 50-day season of Eastertide. Why 50? If you do the math of Jesus' 40 days of post-resurrection appearances up to the Ascension and then the 10 days after that to the day of Pentecost, boom, you have it—50 days. But, you might ask, 50 days of what? Celebration! Feasting! This was the custom of the early church and we continue that tradition in the calendar of our liturgical year.

We know there's a lot in our global pandemic world that isn't so wonderful, but we know there is hope for the end. There is light at the end of the tunnel. This hope is sure. This hope is secure. All hope is rooted in the activity of God to cancel the culture surrounding death—this is what the resurrection of Christ is all about. Death no longer wins. Life wins. Love wins.

The Great Fifty Days is a time of looking toward the eternal celebration in heaven with our Lord and all the saints of God. On this terrestrial plane we are rehearsing for that time when all the bad and evil and death are no more. Rehearsals can be mind-numbing and spirit-breaking; but not this one!! This rehearsal is a festival of hope and joy and all the good things that God is giving us—all the hope that we can generate despite the havoc we see. Celebrate well in Eastertide.

Pax et Lux,
Dr. W+

Associate Rector

Sunday Morning Power Bible Study

Sunday Power Bible Study with Dr. Wayne features all 4 of the week's lectionary texts in about a half-hour's time. Tune in before Sunday worship to get related to God's word for the week. Join Dr. Wayne online at 9:00 am on Nativity's Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/episcopalchurchofthenativity> or the Nativity General YouTube channel.

Bible Study Wednesday

Eastertide Bible Study Wednesday resumes the narratives of the kings of Israel and Judah. These kings were emblematic of the people--as the king goes, so do the people. The study picks up in I Kings 14 with the reign of Jereboam I of the northern kingdom of Israel. Dr. Wayne leads these studies on Wednesdays at 6:00 pm on the Nativity Facebook page and also the Nativity General channel on YouTube.

Wednesday Evening Prayer

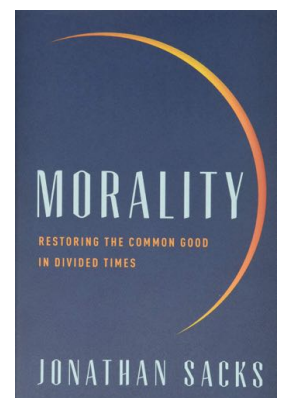

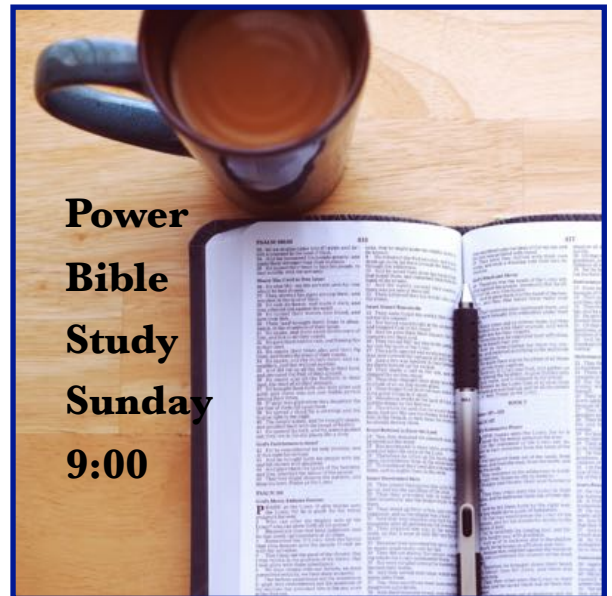

The ancient and venerable rite of Evening Prayer is streamed every Wednesday at 5:30 pm on Nativity's Facebook page. This service features a weekly commemoration of a historical Christian witness. If you would like to participate in the rotation of leaders for this ministry contact Dr. Wayne at waynewhitney@thenativity.net. Be sure to set yourself a 'reminder' by clicking on the event on the Nativity Facebook page, <https://www.facebook.com/episcopalchurchofthenativity>.

Centering Prayer

Centering Prayer meets Tuesday evenings at 6 pm via Zoom. Contact Bill Bailey for a zoom invitation. Contact williambailey70@yahoo.com for further details or questions.

Fr. Scot's Wednesday Book Group

Please join us Wednesday mornings from 10:30 am to 12:00 pm on Zoom. We will be delving into Ethics, also known as Moral Theology, and reading the following book, which you can order at <https://smile.amazon.com/ch/45-5599218>.

Here it is, just as I promised: The Straight and Simple on the Rosary:

The Anglican Rosary, simple and plain. A circlet of small beads in groups of 7 called Weeks, separated by 4 Cruciform beads. A Cross and Invitatory bead - lead into the circle - A simple form of the ancient Catholic Rosary. A simple form of prayer beads from ancient civilizations before Christianity.

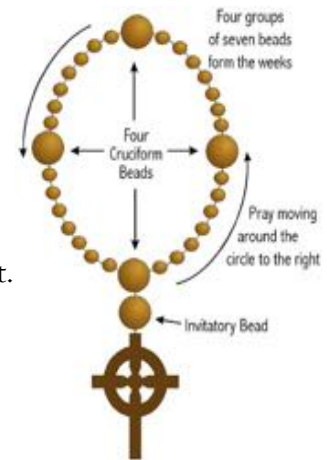

The rosary, a simple prayer aid that opens a path to the Divine. Any number of simple prayers can be used. Episcopalians find this form familiar:

Cross: Let my prayer be set forth in your sight as incense,
The lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

Invitatory: O God, make speed to save us.
O Lord, make haste to help us.

Cruciform Beads: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end.

Week Beads: Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who work, or watch or weep this night.

It's not important which prayers you use. Try different ones. Keep them simple so you don't have to try to memorize them. When I change prayers I write them on a card that is easily held. There are many prayers in our tradition that work well in this format. Find ones you like.

Here's the thing: Just say the words. I Repeat: Just say the words. You don't have to think about it or understand anything. Say it in the evening or morning. Say it aloud or silently. Say it while walking or sitting. Your prayers are heard. What is not clear to you is heard by God. God wants to hear our innermost needs and desires, even when we don't recognize them ourselves. By "Just saying the words" a space is created for you to know yourself better and for God to know you more. It's a portal to a rose garden of prayer. A Rosary, a circle of prayer woven of roses and given to the Virgin Mary. The Anglican Rosary, a prayer garden.

We are excited to welcome Ron Rusinak as the new Chair of the Finance Committee at Nativity. We meet every month a few days before the Vestry meeting. We are glad to welcome Andrea Peabody as the new Treasurer of Nativity, who also will be a member of the Finance Committee. Ron and Andrea will guide us in 2021 and into 2022 with our church finances as they bring years of financial expertise to their respective positions.

In addition, Cotty Peabody was elected by the Vestry to replace Margaret Cohea, and will fulfill the final year of Margaret's term. We are grateful for the vigor and vision Cotty brings to the Vestry.

Ron Rusinak

In 2017, I ended a 30-year career at HonorHealth. Half of those years I was a manager and then Director of Financial Services. The other half was as Director of Health System Planning, where among other things we planned and built HonorHealth's Thompson Peak Hospital.

My wife, Ramona and I moved to Arizona in 1987 where a new position at the then "Scottsdale Memorial Hospital System" awaited me and where Ramona pursued graduate education. Our children attended K-12 school in Arizona yet, as young adults, moved back to Minnesota for graduate studies.

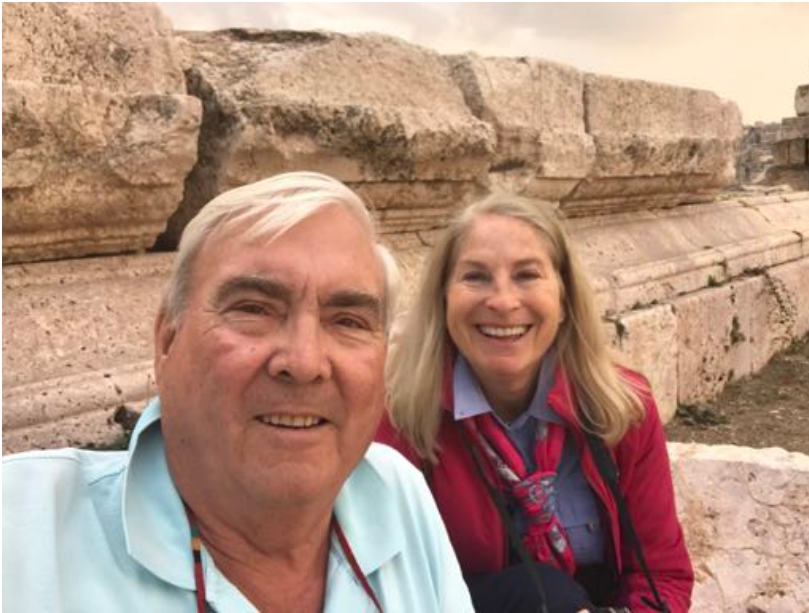

Prior to 1987 our family lived in Minneapolis where our two children were born. Our son, Jason lives in Minnesota with his wife, Jenny and their two daughters. Our daughter, Elizabeth and Dave (the Reverend David Mowers), along with their three young children currently serve two Episcopal parishes in Baraboo and Portage Wisconsin.

I also would like to thank the teams of counters, who are returning to church as we reopen, as they count the Sunday financial offerings and prepare the deposit for the bank.

Art Graf used to do all of this by himself; now we have spread the work around a bit. I would like to thank Art for his over ten years of serving as Treasurer at Nativity. Now Art can focus on his golf game 100%. Thank you Art for your years of service to our church community!

Rector

Andrea Peabody

I am a military brat (my father was West Point, Air Force), growing up in the US and Europe with my family. I graduated from Wellesley College with a degree in Biology, and worked for 20 years in Corporate Banking, in NYC and Boston. During and after my work years I served on Non Profit boards in the Boston area and here in Phoenix. Most recently I spent 8 years on the Bishop's Finance Committee here in Arizona, working first with Bishop Smith and then briefly with Bishop Reddall. And I was the elected Treasurer of our HOA here in Scottsdale and served for 3 years.

Cotty & I were married at Christ Church in Cambridge, Ma. 40 years ago and lived most of our years in the Boston area. We have been coming to the Phoenix area since 1993 and in 2011 retired to our home here in Scottsdale. We joined Nativity when the Church was still housed in the office building. We have generally attended the 8 o'clock service, and during Covid have enjoyed being regular attendees on line.

Cotty Peabody

Cotty Peabody has been a member of the Nativity family for over ten years. He and Andrea joined in 2011 when Nativity was still in the office building location. Prior to moving here in 2011, they were active members of The Church of The Redeemer in Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts for over 25 years.

Since coming to Arizona, Cotty has served the Diocese as a member of the Congregational Support Committee, helping other parishes sort out internal problems and is a board member of The American Friends of the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem. He and Andrea led a Nativity pilgrimage to The Holy Land in 2017 and hope to lead another in 2022. He served one three year term on the Nativity Vestry ending in 2018. Cotty has agreed to fill the final year of Margaret Cohea's term on the vestry.

While we still operate under Covid restrictions, we will emerge from this a stronger parish family. We all eagerly look forward to congregating again in person and rededicating ourselves and our commitments to our neighbors and to Jesus Christ.

During the COVID pandemic, they have organized drive-by caravans for the neighbors. These caravans serve to decrease isolation and show these people that they have not been forgotten. The theme of the April caravan is Spring Joy Convoy. Treats are given to each neighbor visited on the convoy. If you would be interested in baking treats (cookies, brownies, etc.) for the neighbors, please wrap or bag them in 2 or 3 piece individual servings and drop them off at the Foothills Caring Corps on either April 12 or April 19 between 8:30 and 4.

FEED THE HUNGRY

The Episcopal Church of The Nativity has served the men of the East Valley Men's Center in many ways. Before the pandemic, Nativity members gathered to prepare and serve healthy, balanced and delicious meals.

When we shut things down last spring, we sent them money for the dinners leaving them to go out and purchase the food and prepare it. More recently, we have bought the food and left it on their doorstep, leaving them to prepare and serve it.

For our April dinner, we are "breaking out" and going back to the way we did things a year ago. On Monday, April 26th, we will buy, prepare, and serve a ham dinner, with all the trimmings, to the men of the East Valley Men's Center.

A sign-up sheet would be difficult to manage so we are asking volunteers to contact us if you would be willing to help. We will be wearing masks and hopefully those participating will be vaccinated by then. What we need for the dinner is the following:

HAM: Mary Anne and Jon Bost will get this.

POTATOES:

BEANS:

ROLLS

SODAS

DESSERT: Carrie Wagner is making brownies.

We will leave from the church at 4:30 pm on Monday, April 26th, and will be done serving at the Men's Center by 7:00 pm. If you can help, or wish more information, please contact Jon Bost at jonrbost@yahoo.com or 602-618-6781. Hope to see you then.

Lolma! (Hello in Hopi)

Recently I attended the annual Heard Museum Indian Fair & Market event with two other parishioners, Dawn Kast and Joan Harris. We had a wonderful time! Although the event was not as grand as years past due to Covid, the jewelry, art work and historical pieces were just as lovely. Below are only a few of the pictures I took of my favorite pieces. I can't say enough good things about the art work and the Heard Museum's importance. Please try to support their efforts in raising awareness of Native American life, past, present and future.

On another note, the Native American Ministry Council has decided to Zoom monthly until we are able to meet face to face. There are many challenges and projects that need to be addressed more frequently than on a quarterly basis. Nativity Church is not currently aligned with a tribe; however, I am working diligently with other members of the Council on a variety of upcoming projects. I'm also very grateful Gayle Jameson has stepped up and asked how she can become more involved in the Outreach Project for Native Americans. As Covid starts to lift, there should be plenty to do. So, stayed tuned. I hope to announce more details regarding projects in which YOU too can participate. — Thomasina Tafur

We have much to be thankful for this Eastertide. Many of us are being vaccinated, but there are others waiting. Until the diocesan office issues an update we will require everyone at the church to continue wearing masks.

These good pups show how to properly wear a mask!

You can too!
